What do Rembrandt and van Gogh have in common? They were both artists, and they were both Dutch!

Travel to Amsterdam to experience the treasures of the Golden Age of Dutch painting. Walk along the canals as you learn about how Rembrandt lived and worked and where Anne Frank hid while writing her diary. Learn how Dutch culture, history, economics, and politics shaped art history and culture in celebration of the local and the global.

Make history; study abroad. Let Europe be your classroom.

Vincent van Gogh, Self-Portrait with Bandaged Ear, 1889

Johannes Vermeer, Girl with a Pearl Earring, 1665

@AmsterdamAbroad:

Art and Culture in Holland

8-week Spring 2017 semester course

Travel to Amsterdam over Spring Break

March 17 - 23, 2017

Art 280 (Art and Culture in Holland) 3 credit course

For more information contact:

Stephany Rimland at srimland@harpercollege.edu or
Karen Patterson at kpatters@harpercollege.ed

Start. Finish. Go Forward.
http://dept.harpercollege.edu/international/

Harper College