Join the Harper College Community as we read, discuss and learn through a shared exploration of The Greatest Generation by Tom Brokaw, a book that shares the American experience of honor, duty and resilience.

One Book One Harper Film: Tuskegee Airmen
February 23 @1PM in A 236 (Student Lounge)
This film is based on the exploits of the groundbreaking unit, the first African-American combat pilots in the United States Army Air Corps, that fought in World War II. Refreshments and information about the real Tuskegee Airmen will be available.

One Book One Harper Film: A League of Their Own
March 17 @11AM in A 236 (Student Lounge)
This film showcases a fictional portrayal of the real-life All-American Girls Professional Baseball League (AAGPBL), started during WWII as a solution to the threat of shutting down Major League Baseball. Refreshments and information about AAGPBL will be available.

Women & War: Finding a Woman’s Place in World War II
March 17 @2:30PM in the Drama Lab
This lively panel discussion will focus on the role of women in 1940s America and their abilities and contributions to the war effort both in the military and on the Homefront. Refreshments will be served.

Executive Order 9066- Internment Camps & the Japanese-American Experience
Monday, April 27 @ 10AM – Drama Lab
Hear first-hand accounts from local Japanese-Americans who experienced the internment camps in California and Arizona. This informative presentation will focus on Japanese-American history, culture and life in the camps during World War II.

National Library Week Events

- Reception Honoring Harper College Families and Veterans of World War II
  Tuesday, April 14, 2015 @2PM – Harper College Library
  This afternoon reception honors the stories and lives of World War II veterans connected to Harper College employees. Enjoy refreshments, mingle with fellow employees and hear the announcement of next year’s One Book One Harper selection.

- Letters & Readings from the Greatest Generation
  Wednesday, April 15, 2015 @TBD
  Harper Theatre Club will be presenting readings about and letters written by the Greatest Generation.

More information about One Book One Harper, The Greatest Generation and events is available at http://libguides.harpercollege.edu/GreatestGeneration