Around the World in 85 Days: Opportunities for Global Internship
Katharine “J.J.” Pionke from University of Michigan
Monday, October 29
10 a.m. to 11 a.m.
Building A, Room 243

What does a global internship look like? How do you get one? Where could you go? Why would you do one? Learn more.

BE PREPARED
A Global Education for a Global World

Come hear JJ Pionke, Adjunct Professor at Harper and University of Michigan graduate student, talk about the process of getting a series of internships that took her literally around the world this past summer. Learn strategies that could land you that dream internship.

http://dept.harpercollege.edu/international/