This program will use an interdisciplinary approach to enrich your knowledge of these two countries, their art, history and cultural landscapes. In addition to reading, researching, and analyzing British and Irish texts, this trip will foster cultural enrichment through museum visits, theater attendance, and exploration of significant historical landmarks.

For more info, email stitus@harpercollege.edu or mmckinle@harpercollege.edu