JEAN B. CHAPMAN
INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SCHOLARSHIP 2012-2013
Amount: approximately $900

Requirements:
- 3.5 GPA at Harper College for each of the last two (2) consecutive semesters with a minimum of twelve (12) credit hours each semester
- Legal F-1 status with the Department of Homeland Security
- Completion of a minimum of 24 credit hours at Harper College as an international student by the end of the spring semester 2012 (ESL and/or other coursework)
- Full-time enrollment for the fall 2012 and spring 2013 semesters
- Personal interview with the selection committee

Restrictions:
- Continuation of the award for the second semester depends on the achievement of at least a 3.5 GPA during the first semester
- Student must have a valid I-20 from Harper College and have maintained and will continue to maintain legal F-1 status while attending Harper College
- Student cannot receive the scholarship more than once

Student’s Responsibilities:
- Notify Jill Izumikawa, the International Student Coordinator, of any changes in your enrollment status, for example, if you decide to transfer to another educational institution.
- If selected for the scholarship, a letter of appreciation to the president of the Harper College Board of Trustees is strongly suggested.

Applicant Must Submit:
1) Completed scholarship application form
2) Certification letter from Jill Izumikawa, the International Student Coordinator at Harper College, verifying that the international student is in good standing
3) Two (2) Letters of Recommendation from Harper College faculty or staff
4) Unofficial Harper College transcript reflecting spring and fall semester grades
5) A 350-word typed double-spaced essay describing your educational and career goals and the influence or impact studying in the US will have on these goals

Deadline: June 15, 2012
